RESTRICTION ON THE BENOX LIBRARY BLOCK REVIVED.

A Building Supply Man Buys an Extensive Waterfront Plot on the Harlem River-F. E. Carman Sells 40 Private Houses in Jamaica to a Syndicate amount of dealing at private contract was reported from brokers' offices yesterday. The trading was fairly ell distributed and showed no marked toward activity in any one istrict. Some high class realty was involved in several of the deals made A noteworthy feature was the hange of ownership of a number of private dwellings in the fashionable resilence district. A tract of valuable waterfront property in the Dyckman tract, fronting on the Harlem River, was bought by a building material supply firm that will build bulkheads, shop and storage A syndicate of up-State capitalists acquired forty private houses in the former village of Jamaica for about This is said to be the largest sale of improved real estate in the history

The Lenox Library trustees announced yesterday that they had reconsidered their former decision to allow the erection of apartment houses six stories in height on the Madison avenue side of the block between Seventieth and Seventy-first streets, and that the old restriction requiring the erection of private dwellings only would again be efforced.
